

Foolishness

Foolishness – that God should send his son to die,
It's clearly foolishness – to save a sinner such as I
And as I gaze upon his tortured flesh
I fall upon my knees and just confess
My own unworthiness
To see such foolishness

Foolishness – that I should harbour any doubt
Oh yes, it's foolishness – that I should waste a day without Discovering the plans he has for me
I once was blind, it's true, but now I see
Amid this craziness
His blessed foolishness

All that I am, I am because of you
My inspiration, everything I do
And if I ever seek the glory
Just bring me down a peg or two

Foolishness – that I should hesitate at all
It's simply foolishness – that I should fail to hear his call
I will look up and focus on the prize
The way is clear, but only looking through the eyes
Of foolishness
– that blessed foolishness
Foolishness – that precious foolishness
Foolishness
– Thank God for foolishness.

© Keith Miller

"For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved, it is the power of God."

(1 Corinthians 1: 18)