

In All Things, Love

1 Corinthians, ch16, v14

"Do everything in love"

To you, my heart I offer
With my whole being, honour
All that I am, and all I own
From this day forth is yours alone

Nothing on earth can separate us
No fiend or foe could ever tear us apart
With all my heart
I give myself to you

Through many joys and sorrows
Through highs and lows
You're always by my side
On earth below
In heaven above
In all things, love

© Keith Miller, 2003

Written for my parents on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary, the words can be taken to refer to the commitment of two people to each other, or for our commitment to Christ as his devoted followers.