

The Ransom

(The Easter Story in Music)

Keith Miller
Copyright © 1997 by Keith Miller

Melancholy

1
1: Voices (x4)
2: Piano (x4)
3: (x4)
Oh - ward to Je - su - tem.
1. Talk - er from Gal - i - lee
2. Talk - er from Gal - i - lee
Cm

8
1: Voices
2: Piano
3:
Franked — by twelve stout heart - ed men.
All com - mit - ted to see - ing it through. But one, a tri - tor,
Ab Gain G Gain Ab Gain

18

1: Voices And Je — sus knew — He knew — Je — sus knew —

Cm

2: Piano

3:

1. 75 YEARS
2. Cm

2: Piano

ELIZABETH

3:

Ab

G

Ab

G

Ab

G

2: Piano

3:

Ab

G

Cm

2: Piano

Fl. - late

(x2) 75 YEARS

3:

50

1: Voices found in Him no wrong Still the crowd was grow - ing strong - er and strong - er Cru - ci - fy Him, That was their cry. -

2: Piano

3:

Cm Ab Gmim G

60

1: Voices Cm - ci - fy Him, This Je - sus must die, Must die, He must

2: Piano Cm Ab Gmim Cm

3:

69

1: Voices die But you can't crush a good man, He would n't stay dead, And He rose on the

2: Piano

3:

Ab Gmim G Cm Ab

78

1: Voices third day, Just like He said — He is com - ing in Glo - ry. So be not af -raid — Keep your eyes fixed up - on Him.

2: Piano Gmin G Cm Ab Gmin G Cm Ab Gmin

3: No you The ran -som is

2.

91

1: Voices paid. — Is paid. — He has paid. —

2: Piano Cm

3:

Onward to Jerusalem
 Flanked by twelve stout-hearted men
 All committed to seeing it through
 But one, a traitor ...

And Jesus knew
 He knew
 Jesus knew

Taken from Gethsemane
 Bound and beaten sore was He
 Flogged, insulted, given some pain
 Then flogged, insulted ...

And beaten again
 Again, and again, and again and again

(Instrumental)

Pilate found in Him no wrong
 Still the crowd was growing stronger and stronger
 Crucify Him! That was their cry
 Crucify Him! ...

This Jesus must die
 Must die
 He must die

But you can't crush a good man
 He wouldn't stay dead
 And He rose on the third day
 Just like He said

He is coming in glory
 So be not afraid
 Keep your eyes fixed upon Him ...

No you can't crush a good man
 He just wouldn't stay dead
 And He rose on the third day
 Just like He said

He is coming in glory
 So be not afraid
 Keep your eyes fixed upon Him ...
 The ransom is paid
 Is paid
 He has paid